SEVERE CRAMPING SPELLS, PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

"My trouble has been periodic cramping spells," says Mrs. C. C. Draper, of Atlanta, Texas. "For several years these have come on me so bad that I had to quit my work and go to bed. Every month I would stay in bed from one to two days. The pains in my back and sides were awful.

"This went on for several months after I was married until, one time when I was having a bad spell, my husband suggested that I try Cardui. I said I would try it, so he got me a bottle at the store and I began to take it.

"It seemed like I improved from the very first dose. When I had taken one bottle I was very much better. I did not cramp so hard the next month and I ate and slept better. I was not nearly so nervous, either. I thought Cardui was fine, so I continued the treatment until I had taken five bottles, at which time I felt completely well. I had no more cramping spells at all, and my health was as good as anybody's. I am feeling fine now and I give all the credit to Cardui, for I had been suffering for years before I took it."

Cardui is a vegetable extract, containing no harmful ingredients. It is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general. Its users have testified to its special value at the time of entering womanhood at maturity and at the time of the change of life.

For over 40 years, Cardui has been tested in use by thousands of women who have written to tell of the great benefit they have received from it. For over 600 years, medical authorities have recommended one of the principal ingredients of Cardui in the treatment of certain female complaints.

Cardui, the woman's tonic, tested by time, is today the product of many years of experience and investigation. It is manufactured in up-to-date laboratories by the most modern and sanitary methods of pharmaceutical science and is for sale by all druggists. 1 86

SHORT CUTS IN STATE NEWS

The Latest News From All Over the State

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Danville.—Between 400 and 500 members of the Virginia Press Association, who will make a ten-day tour of Virginia next June, will spend the morning of June 8 in Danville.

Luray.—C. B. Green, conductor on a Norfolk and Western freight train, fell from the top of a car to the ground and received serious injuries, including three fractured ribs, lacerations on his arm, and body and probably internal injuries.

Fredericksburg.—The Chesapeake Fisheries, Inc., having sold its plant and equipment some time ago, is closing up the affairs of the corporation, according to officials. All the creditors will be paid in full, but nothing will be left to distribute among the stockholders.

Danville.—M. O. Nelson has accepted the invitation to have charge of the annual Y. M. C. A. membership drive, which will open on March 16. Divisional chiefs have already been secured and preliminary organization was effected this afternoon.

Roanoke.—Rushing to the aid of a friend knocked unconscious by a highly charged electric wire, John Wesley Hambrick, a 16-year-old boy, was instantly killed here. Howard Beams, the man for whom Hambrick sacrificed his life escaped with minor burns about the face and hands.

Luray.—The annual convention of the State Canners' Association of Virginia, which has been held in Roanoke every year since it was organized, is to be held in Luray in 1926. Page county sent a large delegation to the convention with an invitation from the Luray board of trade to hold the convention here next year.

Staunton.—William Chason, indicted cashier of the Tubize Silk Company, of Hopewell, who has been arrested in Los Angeles, registered at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel, of this city, on the evening of October 22. A few hours after he had motored from Staunton he disappeared. The car which he had been driving was found on the roadside a few miles from the city.

Lynchburg.—Surveys have been completed from Lynchburg looking to the establishment of a star mail route, equipped with motor service, from Lynchburg to Pleasant View, Amherst county, which would displace a horse route from Salt Creek. The new route would give a much quicker service to Elon, Agricola, Pedlar Mills and Pleasant View.

Harrisonburg. — News has just reached here of the tragic death of A. A. Shiflett, aged 76, in his home in Bacon Alley, at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Greene county. He was alone and fell into an open fireplace, and before assistance could be rendered death had come. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Staunton.—Addressing the Staunton Rotary Club at luncheon, Dan T. Wine, of Harrisonburg, secretary of the Shenandoah Valley, Inc., said: "We've got everything we've asked so far, but the big hurdles are still ahead. The big fight comes next year when the appropriation for actually acquiring the park land comes up in Congress."

Staunton.—Thelma Bridge, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bridge, died at Lyndhurst, from burns received when she fell into a smouldering bed of coals, which had been used under a pot of soap in the yard. In an endeavor to extinguish the flames, the hands of the child's mother were badly burned. Only a little brother, aged 3, was present when the accident occurred.

Hopewell.—The board of directors of the Hopewell Chamber of Commerce is in close touch with two large industries that are planning to branch out, and hope to get them to locate in the local industrial district. The directors are enthusiastic over the favorable aspect and it is likely that representatives will be sent to interview the heads of these industries.

Norfolk.—Prohibition agents swooped down upon Virginia Beach, opened the jail door and brought out Tyree Brown, the jailer, who was arraigned before United States Commissioner P. S. Stephenson on charges of selling one pint of liquor for $1.50 on February 1. Brown was brought to Norfolk by a deputy marshal on a warrant obtained by Prohibition Agent J. R. Pearson. Meanwhile the jail at Virginia Beach is closed for the lack of an attendant while Brown is detained at prohibition headquarters.

Hot Springs.—J. W. Mathews, house officer for the Homestead Hotel, who received a flesh wound in the leg while out on the lawn, is greatly improved. There is no clue as to who fired the shot. Officer Mathews was making the rounds of the grounds when he was struck by a bullet. Whether the shooting was purposely done or was an accident has not been determined.

Charlottesville. — Introductory courses in educational and vocational guidance for deans and advisors of women is to be offered by the summer quarters of the University of Virginia for the three weeks from July 6 to July 25. These courses are being given in connection with the Southern Woman's Educational Alliance and mark the first time that a Southern university has offered work of such significance.

Winchester. — Determination to send all drunken drivers of motor vehicles to jail when convicted in his court was reiterated by City Judge Worsley. Accordingly, Jackson Begeant got thirty days and $100 fine and costs. He was charged with operating an automobile while drunk. The car collided with a buggy occupied by Gus Loy, wife and three children, one of the latter being injured when buried in the roadway.

Lynchburg.—With the common house cat a miserable failure to rid the club of rats, R. H. Ware, manager of the Piedmont Club, an exclusive organization here, has gotten results from two opposums in the past few days. Last Thursday two opposums were placed in the kitchen of the club. Nine dead rodents were found. The opposums now range at will in the kitchen and there are no more evidences of rats there.

Richmond.—Hearing of the application of the Virginia Railway and Power Company for a temporary increase in car fare of from 6 to 7 cents, to go into effect pending the fixing of a valuation of the company's property by the State Corporation Commission, has been set for March 11, it was announced by the commission. Should the increase be granted, however, the company will sell four tokens for 25 cents.

Luray.—Difficulties are likely to arise over the settlement between Page and Warren counties as to which county shall furnish the delegate to represent the Fifth Legislative District in the next General Assembly. This is due to the change by which Page county, which had been with Rappahannock, has been linked up with Warren. The Democratic nomination is equivalent to election and heretofore each county has had the representative two consecutive times. The committees of the two counties have not definitely decided the matter as yet.

Fredericksburg.—Thursday, May 7, 173rd anniversary of the marriage of Betty Washington and Colonel Fielding Lewis, and third anniversary of the organization of the Kenmore Association, gives promise of being the biggest day in the history of Fredericksburg since the dedication of the Mary Washington Monument. The association's officials have been notified that it will be attended by some of the best-known men in the United States, including many official positions as well as leaders in industrial and commercial life.

Lynchburg.—A movement has been started here and at Big Island looking to the financing of a $50,000 loan under the Robertson act, by which the State Highway Commission will be able to finish the grade of the Natural Bridge highway between Lynchburg and Natural Bridge this year. The State has about $25,000 to the credit of this route, and will continue to work as long as this lasts. Meanwhile, interested business men will undertake to finance the $50,000 loan needed to complete the grading. This leaves the question of surfacing the road to future developments of the highway funds of the State.

Luray.—A Hollander, of Copenhagen, Denmark, biking around the world, reached Luray and stopped to see the Luray Caverns. Hollander said that the Shenandoah Valley was the most beautiful country he had seen in all his travels, and the caverns the most beautiful work of nature he had ever viewed. Hollander started from Copenhagen in 1912, crossing Europe into Asia, across that continent and over to California, thence across the United States. From Luray he will go to Washington, and from there to New York city. In his travels Hollander has called on the notables of every country.

Winchester. — Directors of the Clarke County Creamery Company have requested the Board of Supervisors by resolution to adopt the State tuberculin test law and have the same enforced in the county, contending that some of the best herds of dairy cattle, on which owners have spent much money for inspection are in danger of infection. Supervisors will be urged by spokesmen for owners of tested cattle to adopt the State law, which means no expense to the county, it was said.

The Way of Youth

The truth is that youth always knew what it was old enough to find out rather than what it was old enough to be told.—Alexander Black in Harper's Magazine.

Lesson for March 8

THE SAVIOR ON THE CROSS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 23:33-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?—Rom. 8:32.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Forgives His Enemies.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Savior on the Cross.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Crucifixion of Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ Died for Our Sins.

This lesson brings us face to face with the greatest tragedy of all times. No record in the annals of history approaches it; it is the very climax of all history. Though unique in its darkness, from it flows streams of liberty and life for all the world. It is highly important that every teacher have personal experience of Christ's death for himself, and then get his pupils to see that Christ's death was instead of their own death.

I. The Place of Crucifixion (v. 33).

They led him away to Calvary, a hill north of Jerusalem, resembling a skull. "Calvary" is the Latin word and "Golgotha" is the Hebrew. This is a most significant name for the place where man's redemption was accomplished. The skull is an apt picture of man's condition as the result of sin—life and intelligence are gone, leaving only the dark, empty cavern which once contained them.

II. His Companions on the Cross (v. 33).

Two malefactors were crucified with Him. Their names are not given. This is a fulfillment of the Scriptures. "He was numbered with the transgressors" (Isa. 53:12).

III. His Forgiving Love (v. 34).

He cried, "Father forgive them." He doubtless had in mind not only the soldiers who acted for the government, but the Jews, who, in their blindness, were ignorant of the enormity of their crime.

IV. The World Revealed (vv. 34-43).

Jesus Christ on the cross is the supreme touchstone of human life, and discloses the world's heart. Take a cross-section of the world at any time since Christ was crucified, and representatives of the various classes therein were found around Jesus on the cross.

1. The Covetous (v. 34).

They gambled for His seamless robe right under the cross where He was dying. This represents those whose primary interest in Christ is a means to get gain.

2. The Indifferent (v. 35).

"The people stood beholding." They stood upon Him with indifference. The great mass of the world gaze upon he crucified Christ with stolid indifference.

3. The Scoffers (vv. 35-39).

(1) The rulers reviled Him for His claim to be the Savior. They wanted a Savior, but not a crucified Savior. Many today are religious, but have only contempt for a salvation which restores in an atonement made by blood.

(2) The soldiers reviled Him for claiming to be a king. The title, "King of the Jews," had been placed over Him in bitter irony, but it was true, for, by right of the Davidic covenant, He shall be our King over Israel (II Sam. 7:8-16). The fact that the superscription was in Greek, Hebrew and Latin shows that he was to be king over all the world.

(3) The impenitent Malefactor (v. 40).

This brutal man joined in reviling the Savior, even though he was under condemnation.

4. The Penitent Malefactor (vv. 40-43).

The conclusive sinner who discerned the best of the Savior prayed for mercy. The man confessed his sin against God and cried to Jesus for salvation. He saw that the dying One was the forgiving God. The fact that he acknowledged his sin showed that he was penitent. His request that Christ remember him when He came into His kingdom shows that he recognized that the One who was dying on the cross was making atonement for sin, and that He would come to reign as King. His salvation was immediate. Christ said, "Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise."

V. The Death of Christ (vv. 44-46).

So shocking was the crime that nature herself threw around the Son of God a shroud to hide Him from the godless crowd. When the price of sin was paid He cried with a loud voice, showing that He still had vitality that His death was not through exhaustion, but by His sovereign will.

In This Life

It is in this life alone we can learn lessons of patience and self-denial, for there are no sick-beds to watch by, no sufferers to soothe, no mourners to comfort in the mansions of the Father's house.—George Macdonald.

Foundation of Peace

The Divine benediction is pronounced upon peacemakers. But then peace, to be of value, must be permanent; and to be permanent it must be founded on sound principles.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when in good health. This fact proves that Catarrh is a blood disease and should be relieved by constitutional remedies.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE contains no mercury, but is composed of Reliever by local application, and the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces. Used by druggists for over 40 years. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
